

Andre Nadal

André Nadal, French artist, was born in 1952 in Algeria, in Oran. In 1976, he completed his secondary education at the School of Fine Arts of Perpignan. In 1980, while playing with his daughter, he discovered abstract painting almost by accident... Following a series of trips, notably to the United States, he decided to abandon industrial design in order to devote himself to painting.

His artistic expression is essentially centered on the black and white contrast and intertwining. These two materials, according to their matt effects or their shines, allied to meticulous techniques of brushing and smoothing, express a world in three dimensions.

His pictorial universe consists of cubes, calligraphy, compactions of feathers, floating objects. The zen and dynamic aesthetics of André Nadal pulls us in a pondering that both calms and stimulates the spirit. By playing with different brushing and smoothing techniques, with the mattness or shine of the paint as well as the support, shadows and lights are mixed, giving his works a singular depth and richness.

André Nadal's work is one of those whose painting speaks to the senses and expresses itself through the emotion it exudes. His monochrome architectural constructions are complex and precise, and the play of light and shadow on his canvases offers several levels of interpretation. These compositions, floating in space, become an invitation to travel through space and time. The artist has created a world apart, where a sense of peace and contemplation reigns.

Nadal's numerous exhibitions can be seen in France, Morocco, the United Kingdom, Singapore, China and Switzerland. He now lives and works between Paris and the south of France.
